

Reducing Hazardous Waste

Identify hazardous waste

Manage hazardous waste

Don't throw in garbage

Adhesives
and caulks

Antifreeze

Automotive products

Batteries*
(lead-acid, alkaline, button, rechargeable)

Fluorescent lights* (up to 10)

Gasoline*
(30 gallon limit)

Household
cleaners

Lawn and garden
products

Marine flares*
(limit 10) Not accepted
at Wastemobiles

Mercury
products

Motor oil

Oil-based paints
and stains

Paint thinner
and other solvents

Pesticides

Pool and spa
chemicals

Propane and
butane tanks
(up to 5 gallons)

Examples of Household Hazardous Waste

FLAMABLE, TOXIC
REACTIVE, CORROSIVE

GARAGE

Antifreeze
Motor oil
Oil Paint
Gasoline
Paint thinner

HOUSE

Batteries
Aerosol cans
Fluorescent bulbs
House cleaners
Insecticides

GARDEN/OUTDOORS

Pesticides
Pool chemicals
Fertilizer

Recycle Hazardous Waste

Bring your household hazardous waste to the Hazardous Waste Collection Day Event!

Transfer Station takes:

- Batteries
- Fluorescent bulbs: for small fee
- Electronic waste: for small fee
- Metals
- Tires: for a fee

Tips

Use natural alternative cleaners found at www.srmt-nasn.gov/_uploads/environment/swm-hhwis.pdf

- If original container is leaking, transfer product to a safe container and label it.

Benefits

- Protects you & the environment
- It will save you big bucks

Household Hazardous Waste Management Guide

SRMT Solid Waste Management Program
www.srmt-nsn.gov

SRMT Environment Division.

Contact Information

Transfer Station: (518) 358-4632
www.srmt-nsn.gov

Recycling Coordinator

David Casales
david.casales@srmt-nsn.gov

Solid Waste Program Manager

Lisa M Furnace
Lisa.furnace@srmt-nsn.gov

Operations Manager

Russell Phillips
Russell.phillips@srmt-nsn.gov

SRMT Transfer Station

Location

179 County Route 43, Fort
Covington, NY.

Hours: 7:30 a.m. -2:45 p.m.

Monday-Wednesday,

Friday & Saturday

Closed Thursday, unless there is a holiday
during the week.

